Robert and Adam -- I was finally able to catch up with Lionel this afternoon. He described the comments as "spot on," so they are good to go. I believe my comments on the EA are the only ones you will be receiving from the Tribe, as well. I've been tied up on other things, but will turn to the comments on the strategic plan tomorrow. I previously read and marked up my copy of it. Comments will be consistent with those on the advance draft of the PER. Sorry for the delay in getting comments in on the strategic plan.

Adam -- are you back from Texas? From what I've been reading in the news, I could visualize you being needed longer.
Bill

Robert -- Attached is an advance copy of comments on the PER, which I have sent to Lionel and to George Mase for review and discussion before formal submission. I thought I would leave it to your judgment whether you want to forward them to Adam since he is undoubtedly up to his ear lobes in immigration work right now, and that is pretty important work. I thought you might want to get a sense of what I was suggesting, however, before you get them officially and we can discuss any items you would like to cover regarding them.
